

Join in the celebration and share your creative talents by submitting original logo designs to be used in publicizing the 2012 Montana 4-H Centennial. Contest details are listed below:

WANTED: Applications for Montana 4-H Centennial Celebration Artwork

WHO: Artistic and creative Montana 4-H'ers

WHAT: Original designs for the 2012 Montana 4-H Centennial Logo. Designs should look professional and be creative, simple and unique.

WHEN: Designs must be received in the 4-H Center by September 1, 2010

HOW: Designs must meet the following criteria

- Original artwork cannot contain copyrighted images, except for the 4-H clover (e.g. Web graphics and stock photos)
- Follow all official use of the 4-H clover regulations (found on National 4-H Headquarters web site)
- Can be computer generated or hand drawn
- Include the 4-H clover, 100 years or Centennial, and Montana
- Incorporate a theme (no more than 8 words)
- Adaptable for multiple uses (displays, publications, clothing etc.) and sizes
- One black and white and one color image each on 8.5 X 11 paper with artist information on the back to include the following:

Name

Address

Age, Phone and Email (if available)

Club , County

WHERE: Send designs to: Montana 4-H Centennial
203 Taylor Hall
Bozeman, MT 59717

The creator of the selected design must be willing to allow for changes to increase the successful use of the image and agree to multiple uses without payment. Credit will be given to the designer, as appropriate. The winner will be notified by late September of 2010. Please contact Jill Martz, 4-H Center Director (406-994-3099) with any questions.